

Joby JB01258 UltraFit Sling Strap for Women -Black

The charcoal Sling Strap For Women from Joby provides a safe and rapid way to carry and use your DSLR, CSC compact system camera or super zoom camera. The UltraFit is designed for immediate access to your camera by providing a smooth glide up to eye level. The strap locks in the rear for added security when moving around or in crowded places.

Key Features

- S-Curve Shaped Pad for Comfort A curved pad prevents the strap cutting uncomfortably across your chest
- Quick-Draw Design The strap provides rapid access to your camera with a smooth glide up to eye level
- UltraFit Layered Pad Technology Distributes weight evenly for better support, comfort; combines four fabrics to create a strap pad that is lightweight and still evenly distributes the weight of a DSLR or CSC (compact system camera)
- Pivot Ring for Comfort Sliding ring that allows you to conform the strap to your body's shape
- SpeedCinch System Keeps the camera close to your body; eliminates bouncing, swinging or drops
- Security Lock This allows you to secure the strap in cinched mode to prevent slippage or when you're walking through a crowd
- Heat Press Binding Technique Eliminates loose threads or abrasive points on the strap
- High-Performance Webbing Soft-edged webbing conforms to your body's shape so you can wear the strap in a position that is most comfortable; assures a smooth glide when you need to shoot.
- Ball Bearing for Mobility and Stability Interior ball bearing inside the 1/4"-20 attachment allows your camera to spin and rotate without unscrewing it from the strap; 1/4"-20 attachment easily connects to your camera's tripod socket.
